

Worldwide Airside Liability Insurance Facility

All Contractors and Concessionaires working at airports will require Airside Liability insurance, yet standard Public Liability and Motor insurance policies will exclude Airside Liability. CSP are able to offer a standalone policy to cover your clients' legal liability whilst working airside.

Who Needs Airside Insurance

The term airside means any part of an Airport or Aerodrome premises which has restricted right of access, such as apron, taxiways, runways or terminals as well as other areas past the security gates, or as outlined by the Airport or Aerodrome authority. Anyone that carries out regular or one contract at an Airport or Aerodrome or even visiting the airside areas will need Airside Liability coverage

CSP Aviation team have over 50 years experience in the aviation sector and have an exclusive facility with Allianz Global Corporate & Specialty , a world leader in Aviation Insurance, enabling us to provide a fast and cost effective service.
